Guest: Greg Lemanski

Meeting was called to order by President Beverly Schnell.

The March general membership meeting minutes were accepted as read except for a correction to the fall specialty judge. Carol Coode will replace Michael Silva.

The treasurer’s report was accepted as read.

Elections were held with the results as follows: President-Pauline Mortier, Vice President-Cathy Culpert, Treasurer- Al Reich, Recording Secretary-Jeanine Asch, Corresponding Secretary-Mary MacLean, Board Members: Karen Brines, Kim Bryson, Mike Merians, Annie Cogo, Cindy Skiba.

There will be a Paws With A Cause open house may 17 at PAWS National Headquarters Wayland, MI to celebrate the grand opening of our new Canine Development Facility. All three facilities – Headquarters, Canine Evaluation Center and new Canine Development Facility will be open for tours from Noon until 4:00 PM.

FIELD REPORT: If anyone is interested in doing fieldwork with their dogs, the Michigan Hunting Retriever Club (UKC) holds training sessions for members Wednesdays at 6 p.m. and Saturdays at 10 a.m. The sessions are held at Don and Sharon Fowler’s place in Howell.

There was discussion about the field trailer and its contents and whether we should retain it. If we are not going to use the materials, we could possibly sell them.

SPRING 2003 SPECIALTY: There seems to be a discrepancy regarding how much we made from catalog sales and how much we possibly owe to the other specialty clubs. There should have been a check issued by MB-F to HRLC. Until this is straightened out, we will not be able to compose a profit/loss statement. For future specialties, the membership will need to discuss how much money should be spent for sweepstakes judges.

Nancy Chargo made a motion to eliminate the spring specialty held in conjunction with DKC at Cobo Hall. Motion passed.

A discussion ensued regarding hosting back-to-back specialties and if there would be enough volunteers to support this. Mary MacLean has agreed to check into available dates for holding 2 consecutive shows. Possible locations for this show need to be determined. It doesn’t appear that Cabela’s has enough lawn space to permit a show. A possibility is the Wayne County Fairgrounds in Belleville. Michelle VeuCasovic has agreed to check into this. If anyone thinks of a motel that might possibly have enough space to hold our specialty, please let us know.

It was pointed out that we might encourage more people to volunteer and assist at events if people who have done the job in the past make operational notes so as to help their successor. This way, everyone would know exactly what the expectations of them are. We currently have a manual that contains some of this information.

FALL SPECIALTY: A judge change from Michael Silva to Carol Coode has been made. AKC has approved the revision. Cheryl Wellnitz has agreed to be the show secretary.

Annie checked with Gretchen Turner regarding the software she used for the Hoosier show. We could purchase it for $250. Cheryl is going to talk with Marie about an upgrade for our existing software.

If you are interested in a trophy sponsorship, please contact Nancy Chargo. Pauline has agreed to again donate large ribbons for BOB, BOS, WD and WB. We still have an inventory of pewter plates and magnets. To use up our existing inventory, we could award a plate for 1st place and provide slip leads made by Jeanine as prizes.

Annie is going to check into why we have not received a refund of our security deposit for the 2002 Fall Specialty from Newport Fireman's Park.

FUN MATCH: Cathy Culpert has agreed to run the summer fun match. Laura Reich will do publicity. The match will be held Saturday, July 12 at the Norgren's. Ron Cogo mentioned he has some raffle items from Mary Cox. We could use these items for the match or the fall specialty. Stewards for the match will be: Nancy Chargo, Al Reich, Helen Bronson and Cindy Skiba. It is being considered to add classes such as a sexually altered class and a costume class.

NEW BUSINESS: Al asked if the club would pay $39 to renew the license plate tabs for the trailer. If the trailer needs to be moved, the fee will be paid. Sheila has the title for this trailer and will get it to Al.

Meeting adjourned at 9:09 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jeanine Asch, Recording Secretary

THIS DOG

Submitted by Annie Cogo

“He is my other eyes that can see above the clouds; my other ears that hear above the winds. He is the part of me that can reach out into the sea. He has told me a thousand times over that I am his reason for being: by the way he rests against my leg; by the way he thumps his tail at my smallest smile; by the way he shows his hurt when I leave without taking him. (I Think it makes him sick with worry when he is not along to care for me.) When I am wrong, he is delighted to forgive. When I am angry, he clowns to make me smile. When I am happy, he is joy unbounded. When I am a fool, he ignores it. When I succeed, he brags. Without him, I am only another man. With him, I am all-powerful. He is loyalty itself. He has taught me the meaning of devotion. With him, I know a secret comfort and a private peace. He has brought me understanding where before I was ignorant. His head on my knee can heal my human hurts. His presence by my side is protection against my fears of dark and unknown things. He has promised to wait for me . . . whenever . . . wherever – in case I need him. And I expect I will – as I always have. He is just my dog.

“Meow, but don’t quote me on that.”

THE MOST EXPENSIVE DOG COLLAR

Submitted by Jeanine Asch

In the beginning. . .

You got your dog, a real show dog, and quickly realized that you need the correct collar to show him on. Which in turn led you to that wonderful buttery smooth three foot leather lead. At your very first show, you noticed that you just HAD to have the proper grooming supplies also.

- Slicker brush $9.00
- Comb $10.00
- Spray bottle $4.00
- Good Conditioner $15.00
- Water Bottle $4.00
- Pin Brush $15.00
- Bait $10.00
- NEW collar (your dog has now outgrown that first one) $14.00
- Chalk $9.00
- Cholesterol $15.00

YOUR FIRST POINT . . . YOU’RE HOOKED!

- Bait $10.00
- Dog show calendar $12.00 – don’t want to miss ANY shows now

By now you’re beginning to realize the back seat isn’t a proper way to transport your dog.

- Dog crate for the car $80.00

At your very next show you begin to feel a bit more confident and relaxed at dog shows. Borrowing and waiting to use your friend’s grooming table is so inconvenient.

- Grooming table $95.00
- Grooming Arm $50.99
- Bait $10.00

You begin to start collecting dog show things, old towels, skirts with pockets, dresses with pockets, good comfortable shoes, rain gear, umbrellas, water jugs, etc. $100.00

- Tack box $50.00
- Good comfortable Camp Chairs $35.00 (we seem to be spending much more time at shows lately.

Suddenly you realize all of these items AND your dog don’t fit in the family car anymore.

- Used Mini Van $15,000

Somewhere around this point you get tired of waiting to use your friend’s blow dryer.

- New blow dryer $150.00
- Extension Cord for Dryer $15.00
- Five-way plug for sharing electricity with your new dog show friends $10.00
- New and improved dog show collar and lead $40.00
- New type of improved Coat Conditioner $15.00
- Bait $10.00
- Your friend’s favorite Shampoo and Whitener $35.00
- New Comb and Slicker brush $25.00 (you just lost the old ones at the last show)
- Scissors $30.00 (kitchen shears just don’t trim those pads right)
- Muddy Show grounds. Roll up matt for covering ground $45.00

YOUR DOG PICKED UP HER NINTH

SINGLE! The hunt for majors begins. After wasting much money on entries where majors didn’t hold you begin to get frustrated and search out and find that new male show puppy and a perfect match for your female!

- Crate for new dog $80.00
- Show collar and lead for new dog $50.00 (your tastes have been refined now)

- Handling classes for new dog $40.00

The very first show teaches you, your Mini Van will not carry both crates and all your equipment

- Brand New Larger Mini Van $25,000

Now having two dogs to show and get ready quickly teaches you a generator is required!

- Generator $325.00
- Two dog kennels for outside $1,000.00

Just gotta pick up one of those majors on your female.

- Handler for those major shows $200.00

(+/-)

YOUR FEMALE FINISHES! Your new male is too young to breed.

- Updating & Health Clearances on female $200.00
- Stud fee $1,000.00
- Progesterone Testing $200.00
- Whelping box $250.00
- Vet bills, xrays, sonograms, well mother checks $400.00
- Putting first aid whelping kit together $300.00
- Vaccines for new litter $150.00
- X-pen for puppies $80.00
- Whelping pads, fleeces, toys for puppies, weaning supplies, etc. $450.00
- Baby scale $45.00
- Well puppy and mother exams $150.00

Spectacular puppy in litter will be new show dog. Immediately realize Mini Van will NOT hold three dogs and show equipment.

- Motor Home or full size dog show van $30,000 to $100,000!!!
- You suddenly realize you are eating macaroni and cheese while your dogs are eating Human Grade Dog Food at $55.00 a bag

Congratulations! You have now earned the title of "Dog Breeder!" Aren't you glad you are finally making those big bucks breeding dogs?

- So far you have invested $75,652.00 in showing your two dogs.

This figure does NOT include dog food, the initial cost of your dogs, entry fees, motel bills, general vet bills, toys and many other ownership incidentals. Your litter of pups yielded six puppies, you kept one and sold the other five for $500.00 each. Congratulations you just made $2,500.00 breeding your dogs! Now if you can just breed 30 or more litters you MAY just break even with your initial investment of over $75,000!

A MAN AND HIS DOG

Submitted by Bev Schnell

We spend a lot of time complaining about what's wrong with our sport. Once in a while, something happens that makes us feel warm and fuzzy.

An Irish friend, Coralee Freeney, related the following story about her experience at a dog show. As with all forms of competition, there comes a certain amount of ambition, goal grabbing, disappointment, anger, and in extreme cases, even revenge. Some of it is just the nature of competition, the majority of it is just malice. Dog showing is no exception. Recently, I had a breath of fresh air.

I was stewarding at the Rough Collie Club of Ireland's Championship show. It's a relatively popular breed here in Ireland, with a big entry. Just before the Novice class, one of the club officials came into the ring and I overheard her tell the judge about the one entry in the class. I thought it was unusual that there was only one entry in the class, but later found out the reason why. I called the class, and in walked a man and his Rough Collie. He's an old man, rough around the edges and, well, his dog is really unkempt, by show standards. He marched proudly into the ring with the dog on a great big, thick, rope lead. While the judge was going over the dog, I was filled in on his story.

I was told that he lives in an old folks home in Galway, the other side of Ireland. He has no living family left, and no visitors at the old folks home. He's been showing this dog for eight years, only on St. Patrick's Day or at the Club show. He'd traveled 150 miles on a bus yesterday morning, which takes about five hours in Ireland. The nurses in his home usually phone the club to tell of his departure, and the club usually phones back when they spot this old man at the show. He has only ever shown the dog in Novice, and people over the years never compete against him. The nurses told the club officials that when he wins a rosette at a show, he wears it for weeks at home in the old folks home. The dog lives with his at the home and is quite a celebrity "show dog" with all the residents, and the pride and joy of this man's life. He spends half the year telling people about the last dog show, and the other half of the year looking forward to the next one!

The judge was so considerate to this man. And, boy, was he proud to show off his dog! When the judge asked could she look at the dog's teeth, "Oh yes," the man replied and instructed the dog to "Smile." With that, the dog showed off a perfect set of choppers!

The judge replied, "Aren't you a clever dog?"

The man said, "Oh, he is very clever; he'll shake your hand too if you like!" I couldn't help smiling when I heard this, and full credit to the judge, she shook hands with the dog!

The dog won first in the class and every exhibitor at the show, gave this old man and his dog a standing ovation. He was cheered and clapped as he did his own lap around the ring. People came over to the ringside to congratulate and pat the man on the back as he left the ring. Talk about Elvis leaving the building, this man was certainly the king when he won his class. He was just so proud of his accomplishment. He lapped up every minute of it. They really made this old man's day. Possibly his year! Heaven help the residents at the old folks home when he returned home last night.

Not only did he win a rosette, but he also won a great, big trophy. I'm sure it will take pride of place on the mantelpiece!

Isn't that what dog showing should be about? Giving people like this old man a day out to enjoy the only family he has, his best pal, his dog. A memory for an old man to hold on to, to brighten his day, something to share with his friends at the old folks home. Something to be proud of, however small the achievement.

NOTICE TO PEOPLE WHO VISIT MY HOME

From Lucille Walker of Walkabout Labs

1. The dog lives here. You don't.
2. If you don't want dog hair on your clothes, stay off the furniture.
3. Yes, he has some disgusting habits. So do I and so do you. What's your point?
4. OF COURSE he smells like a dog.
5. It's his nature to try to sniff your crotch. Please feel free to sniff his.
6. I like him a lot better than I like most people.
7. To you he's a dog. To me he's an adopted son who is short, hairy, walks on all fours and doesn't speak clearly. I have no problem with any of these things.
8. Dogs are better than kids. They eat less, don't ask for money all the time, are easier to train, usually come when called, never drive your car, don't worry about whether they have the latest fashions, don't wear your clothes and don't need a gazillion dollars for college.
9. The same applies for the cats, except they will ignore you . . . until you're asleep.

"Yes, they are crazy, but they can open the fridge."

NEWSLETTER EDITORSHIP

Thank you for entrusting the Huron River LRC Newsletter Editorship to me these past few years. Due to additional duties taken on by my better half and the typist of this newsletter, I am resigning. It has been a pleasure to serve you. I offer to assist the new editor in any way I can. Anyone interested in taking over the newsletter editorship, please contact the Board of the HRLRC. The Board will consider all applicants and appoint a new editor.
